

THE GREEN PRAIRIE CONSULTANTS

Natural Resource Development & Environmental Protection in Arid and Semi-Arid Lands

Established 1991 | Khartoum, Sudan

www.thegreenprairieconsultants.com

Professional Capability Statement

Company Overview

The Green Prairie Consultants is a professional consultancy firm specializing in natural resource management, environmental protection, climate resilience, water resources development, livestock development, rural livelihoods, and sustainable development. Established in 1991, The Green Prairie Consultants has over three decades of experience supporting governments, development banks, United Nations agencies, regional organizations, NGOs, research institutions, and private sector clients across Africa and the Middle East.

The Green Prairie Consultants collaborates with a wide array of highly competent international experts and consultants across natural resources, environment, livelihoods, and related fields.

Core Service Areas

Natural Resource Development	Rangelands & Pasture Development
Livestock Development	Environmental Protection & Conservation
Climate Change & Resilience	Water Resources Development
Environmental Impact Assessment (EIA)	Research, Training & Capacity Building

Leadership

Professor Mustafa Suliman, PhD Director General

Professor Mustafa Suliman is an internationally recognized expert in natural resources, range ecology, livestock systems, environmental protection and rural development. He has served as Founder, Dean and Professor of the Faculty of Forestry and Range Science at Upper Nile University and has led major assignments funded by AfDB, IGAD, AOAD, the World Bank and other development partners.

Academic Qualifications: PhD in Range Ecology (New Mexico State University), MSc in Range-Livestock Management (Utah State University), and BSc in Biology & Ecology (University of Khartoum).

Selected Project Experience

- AfDB / IGAD Sudan Drought Resilience Program – Rangelands Survey and Assessment Study (Team Leader).
- AOAD Regional Strategy for Sustainable Development of Rangelands (Team Leader / Range Management Consultant).
- Somaliland Development Fund – Rangelands Management Training Program (Training Consultant).
- World Bank-supported Natural Resources Sustainable Development Project – Value Chain Development and Capacity Building.
- OXFAM Great Britain – Livelihoods and Market Systems Development in South Sudan.
- Er-Rosaries Dam Heightening Project – Environmental Impact Assessment Team Member.

Geographic Reach

Sudan, South Sudan, Ethiopia, Somaliland, Kenya, Uganda, Eritrea, Djibouti, Egypt, Oman, Saudi Arabia, Norway, Canada, China, United Kingdom and the United States.

Selected Clients & Partners

AfDB, IGAD, FAO, UNDP, UNEP, AOAD, OXFAM Great Britain, PLAN International, Somaliland Development Fund (SDF), and World Bank-supported projects.

The Green Prairie Consultants maintains a network of associated international experts and rapidly mobilizes multidisciplinary teams tailored to the technical requirements of each assignment.

Contact Information

info@thegreenprairieconsultants.com

Sudan: +249 129 342 271

Saudi Arabia: +966 50 840 6202

www.thegreenprairieconsultants.com